TWIN PARISH NEWS

Next weekend, June 1st, begins the parish-wide kick off of St. William's Education Campaign for our twin parish. Please read the following message from Father Faustin and pray for the success of the campaign.

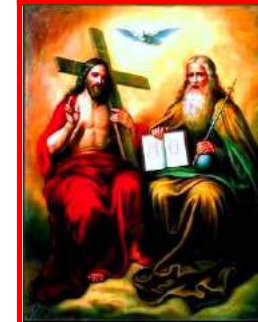

The beautiful smile that Civil shares with you belies the reality of her life. Civil, a student at St. Joseph parish school, is a domestic servant. Her parents are too poor to keep her at home, so they entrust her to another family for household tasks. Father Faustin tells us that 60% of the children at St. Joseph parish school are servants! He says, "Their only chance in life remains a quality education." To further reinforce his position, Father adds:

"Why should child domestic workers be encouraged to go to school? In a country like Haiti where there is no social assistance, education remains the only way for these children to break the chain of child domestic labor. Helping these children is helping them out of this inhumane situation. Thank you for your generosity. God bless you!"

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

6th Sunday of Easter - May 19, 2019

The concept of hospitality is fundamental to a stewardship way of life. When we envision hospitality, we naturally think of offering a sincere and warm welcome — to those new to our parish, for instance. We picture inviting them in and making them feel at home and at ease in our presence, communicating to them that they are highly valued.

Today's Gospel reading from John invites us to think of hospitality in a slightly different way. In it, we hear Jesus speaking this to his disciples: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

Jesus is asking that we permit the Blessed Trinity to come and dwell within us. This is a stunning request. It tells us that our first and most privileged form of hospitality should be directed towards God Himself.

How does one show hospitality to God? How do we make God "at home and at ease" within us? How can we communicate to God that He is "highly valued" by us?

Jesus tells us how: we are to keep His word, to follow His teachings.

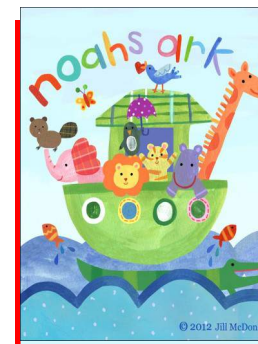

In order to keep His word, we must know His word. This takes discipline and effort on our part. We must make study of Scripture and Church teaching a priority in our daily lives.

If we want our parish to be a place of genuine Christian hospitality, we must be sure that our own hearts are hospitable dwelling places for the Blessed Trinity. Then, our smiles and words, our greetings and ministries, will radiate with the warmth of God's love. And, our parish family will become at least a little bit like Heaven on earth. This is the simplicity and glory of a stewardship way of life.
