Thank you, Parish Family!

The disciples heard Our Lord's call and were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we make room for the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts. When we use our gifts in the way that God intends, He fills us with supernatural joy. A joy that others notice and are attracted to.

Next week, our special collection is for the Catholic Communication Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ in the United States and in developing countries around the world through the Internet, television, radio, and print media. Fully 50% of funds collected remain here in the Diocese of Savannah to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the Gospel message! To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/cc.

In marriage, communication is more than just talking. At some point, did you stop sharing about the things that were important to you? Did our spouse? Improving a marriage takes time and conscious effort to learn about your spouse. Growing closer in marriage does not happen automatically. Are you giving your heart and soul to your marriage? Retrouvaille is a marriage program designed to bring couples closer together. To register or for more information call 800-470-2230 or visit: HelpOurMarriage.org. An upcoming Retrouvaille Weekend is scheduled for May 31-June 2 in Charleston, SC.

DIOCESAN SUMMER CAMPS

CALL TO HOLINESS GIRLS CAMP
(June 23 -June 26)

VOCATIO DEI BOYS CAMP
(June 26-June 29)

These camps provide a great opportunity to learn more about listening to God and seeking His will in your daily life. They are packed with fun activities, inspiring talks and testimonies, Mass, Adoration, and a chance to interact daily with sisters, priests and seminarians. All rising 7th-12th Grade teens are invited - $70 per child, each additional child from the same family $50. Registration: www.diosav.org/vocations. Questions: (912)201-4126 or vocations@diosav.org.

PARISH HALL - We have officially moved the Parish Office out of the Rectory and they are now in the Parish Hall. Please note that the entrance to the Parish Office is at the front of the Parish Hall, not the rear parking lot. We now have cleaned out both storage units. We do have a couple of classrooms set up, so if you have "worn out your welcome" at the place you were meeting and you really need a meeting room in May, please call, and we will set you up.

If your change of locale is not imperative, please give us a few weeks to work the kinks out. Closets will be assigned in mid-May. Please bear with us during this transition, and we thank you for your cooperation!

Are You Able?

MANNA HOUSE - Cecil Clontz is retiring from our Manna House team after 11 years "on the job" and 4 years as Head of the team. We need someone to lead our team that serves the 3rd Monday of each month. If you are able to help, please call the office. Thank you!!!

HELP WANTED - We need 6+ volunteers for VBS from June 24-28, 8:30-12:30, and we need C.RE.ED Sunday school teachers for grades K-12. Please call Nancy at (912) 638-2651 or Powernancy@comcast.net. Volunteers must be VIRTUS trained.

Society of St. Vincent dePaul needs Volunteers - Will you help? The Society is seeking individuals who have a heart to serve. We have ongoing needs in all of the following areas: thrift store operations, (Tiffany, 262-6027); food pantry (Mark, 602-2524); financial assistance/counseling (Nancy, (513)722-6789 or Stephanie, (678)677-4803). If none of these fits your skills or preferences, other needs are always developing (Jim 638-7220). Volunteer hours (M-F) are flexible and can fit your schedule. Volunteering at St. Vincent is a ministry, not a job. What is God saying to you?

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

4th Sunday of Easter - May 12, 2019

Throughout the Easter season, our readings have given us glimpses into the life of the newborn Church and the bold witness of the early disciples in spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ to all who would listen. These disciples were the first to live a stewardship way of life and their example is as relevant today as it was 2,000 years ago.

In the First Reading, from the Acts of the Apostles, we catch up with Paul and Barnabas in Antioch. While they certainly have some success in reaching many people there with the message of salvation, others are downright infuriated by their words and send them packing. Yet, we read that "the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." Overall, it seems as if Paul and Barnabas had failed in Antioch. But this seeing failure has not robbed them of their joy. What's more, they are filled to the brim with the abundant gifts of the Holy Spirit. How is this possible? It is only possible because Paul and Barnabas saw themselves as nothing more and nothing less than stewards of Christ and His Good News. This realization brought them freedom — to offer themselves and their lives to others for the sake of the Gospel. The "results" of their efforts were up to God. This Spirit-filled, joy-filled life is available to all of us, all these years later. It can be achieved when we recognize, like Paul and Barnabas, that all we have and all we are is a gift from God, meant to be shared with others for His glory. Of course, living as God's stewards does not mean a life of ease or a life free of sacrifice. Sometimes the steward's life involves great challenges, requiring all the strength and love one has to give. But in the end there is simply no more satisfying way to live.

Please do not prop open the outside double doors of the Parish Hall. This was done last Sunday and caused the air conditioner to "Freeze up."

We do not prop open our outside doors at home, why would we do it at our church?
