Thank you, Parish Family!

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when we share what we have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! God blesses all the gifts we offer and makes them wondrous.

Next week, we will take up the PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

TWIN PARISH EDUCATION CAMPAIGN
GIVE TODAY to help a child in Haiti. Your gift to the education campaign will provide teachers, learning and lunch for Josué and other poor children like him in Côtés-de-Fer. Please put your faith into action and make a donation to this annual collection. There are just three weeks left in the campaign and we really need your gift to keep three schools in operation at our twin parish. If you've already made a gift, please pray for the success of the campaign. Send your donation to: Helping Hugs, Inc., P.O. Box 24477, St. Simons Island GA 31522 or contribute on the website: www.helpinghugsinc.org.

Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ - June 23, 2019

Today, we observe the Solemnity of the of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This beautiful feast celebrates the gift of the Eucharist, which the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches is the source and summit of our Christian faith. "For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ Himself" (CCC 1324).

The very word, Eucharist, means "thanksgiving" or "gratitude," and so this feast is especially meaningful to all of us who are striving to live as grateful stewards of all God's blessings to us. Surely the Eucharist is the greatest of all blessings because it is not only from God, it is God — the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Today's second reading from St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians reminds us of the depths of love our Lord has shown us in the gift of the Eucharist, recalling Christ's words at the very first Eucharistic celebration. "The Lord Jesus... took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you.'" In that moment, and at every celebration of the Mass thereafter, Jesus gives us His very Self in an act of complete humility and perfect love. How can we possibly show our gratitude for such a sublime gift?

We can receive the gift of the Eucharist with the greatest possible reverence and love. And, following our Lord's example, we can give ourselves generously to others in the week ahead.

PROMISE TO PROTECT

PLEDGE TO HEAL

In accordance with the Dallas Charter, the Diocese of Savannah places the mental, physical and spiritual recuperation of victims/survivors of child sexual abuse in our Churches and Schools a priority. The Diocese also ensures that our Church in South Georgia is a place where children can grow in God's love without the threat of abuse. In the preamble of the Charter our Bishops state, "We rely on the Catholic faithful of the United States." Thank you to our volunteers who are compliant with the Policy on Sexual Abuse of Minors for our Diocese and are clear for ministry. You are the eyes and ears who keep children safe. If you are a victim/survivor or are aware of child abuse within our Diocese please make a report to civil authorities and call the toll-free hotline at 1-888-357-5330. More information can be found at www.diosav.org/childyouthprotection.

Sympathy & prayers are extended . . .

to Jan & Dick Borsh, upon the death of his brother, JOHN BORSH.

May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

Flowers are placed by the altar in honor of the wedding of Rebecca Shannon Hosey & Chandler Hobson Goldman.
