Thank you, Parish Family!

We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to "live the good life." But Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free so that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God's work here on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

Fr. Peter Nguyen transfers to us as Parochial Vicar from St. Teresa of Avila Church in Grovetown GA. Fr. Nguyen served in that same position for four years at St. Teresa. We welcome you, Fr. Peter!

Be a Witness of Charity

Peter's Pence Collection This weekend is the Peter's Pence Collection, a worldwide collection that supports the charitable works of Pope Francis. Funds from this collection help victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous today. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

In accordance with the Dallas Charter, the Diocese of Savannah places the mental, physical and spiritual recuperation of victims/survivors of child sexual abuse in our churches and schools a priority. The Diocese also ensures that our Church in South Georgia is a place where children can grow in God's love without the threat of abuse. In the preamble of the Charter our Bishops state, "We rely on the Catholic faithful of the United States." Thank you to our volunteers who are compliant with the Policy on Sexual Abuse of Minors for our Diocese and are clear for ministry. You are the eyes and ears who keep children safe.

If you are a victim/survivor or are aware of child abuse within our Diocese please make a report to civil authorities and call the toll-free hotline at 1-888-357-5330. More information can be found at www.diosav.org/childyouthprotection.

A child in Haiti is counting on you for an education next year. Father Faustin tells us that receiving an education is their only hope of a brighter future. Please put your faith into action and make a donation to this annual collection. Your gift to the education campaign will provide teachers, learning and lunch for the poor of Cotes-de-Fer. There are just two weeks left in the campaign. Please make a gift today. Send your donation to: Helping Hugs, Inc., P.O. Box 24477, St. Simons Island GA 31522 or contribute on the website: www.helpinghugsinc.org. If you've already made a gift, please pray for the success of the campaign. Thank you.

ARE YOU READY FOR COFFEE & DOUGHNUTS?!
If you are, we are looking for a volunteer or two to coordinate this ministry. Please call the office.

MONSIGNOR JOHN A. KENNEALLY SCHOLARSHIP
In honor of Msgr. John Kenneally's 50th anniversary of his ordination, St. William Parish Council has established the Monsignor John A. Kenneally Scholarship for any St. Francis Xavier School student entering Grades 6-8 in the 2019-20 school year who shows a financial need through FACTS and has excelled in community service or extra-curricular activities. Application is available at sfxcs.org, or email kspaeder@sfxcs.org for more information. Deadline to apply is August 1, 2019. The link is <https://www.sfxcs.org/admissions/scholarship.cfm>.

If you wish to contribute to the Monsignor John A. Kenneally Scholarship, envelopes are available in the back of the church and in the office.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time - June 30, 2019

Today's readings take us back to the basics, inviting us to reflect honestly on our deepest priorities in life.

In today's Gospel, from Luke, Christ refers to the struggle to put Him above all else as He encounters two "would-be" disciples on His way to Jerusalem. "Follow me," Jesus says to the first man. "But he replied, 'Lord let me go first and bury my father.'" The other said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." These two want to follow Christ, but only on their own terms, and only after taking care of some other, more pressing matters (at least in their own minds).

To this, Christ says thanks, but no thanks! Following Him requires an unqualified "yes" not a "yes, but..." We are called to put Christ and His kingdom ahead of our own plans if we truly wish to be His disciples and to find victory in the battle of selfishness.

Living stewardship as a way of life can go a long way in arming us for victory. A stewardship way of life provides us with a custom-made "training plan" — the commitment to a specific offering of our time, talent and treasure to the Kingdom of God. It is a plan discerned through prayer and by looking at the realities of our unique circumstances, strengths and limitations. The daily discipline of committing to the plan strengthens us and helps us gradually move away from the "yes, but" attitude and towards an unqualified "yes!" to Christ and His will.

Do not be afraid to give the best of yourself and your gifts to Christ. He deserves nothing less. And this way of life, while challenging, will be characterized by a joy and peace that only comes from living for Him.
