Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don't like - all without expecting anything in return. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story.

Next week, our parish will take up a collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa. While the Church in Africa is growing, many still lack access to basic resources as well as pastoral care. Many suffer due to high rates of poverty and unemployment, illiteracy, and poor education. The fund supports pastoral projects that strengthen communities in their faith and foster lasting peace and reconciliation in a continent often marked by division and tension. STEWARDSHIP MOMENT
15th Sunday in Ordinary Time - July 14, 2019

In today's Gospel passage from Luke, we read the well-known parable of the Good Samaritan. Here, Jesus teaches us in rich detail what stewardship in action looks like. In fact, this parable could just as accurately be called the parable of the Good Steward. The first thing we note about the Good Samaritan is that he is aware of the needs of those around him and responds generously. While the priest and Levi brush right past the man on the side of the road, the Samaritan is watching for those who might be in need. He has a hospitable way of looking at the world around him, and so, he is able to "see" in a way that the others did not, and he was "moved with compassion at the sight" of the man.

Next, we see the Good Samaritan spring into action to serve this man, setting aside his own schedule and plans in order to meet his needs. He does not just give the man a few dollars or offer some quick words of encouragement from across the road. He goes right up to the man. He cleans and bandages his wounds. He puts the man on his own animal and brings him to an inn where he can heal. He ensures that the innkeeper would continue to look after him and he commits to returning to the man on his way back.

That is how we live out God's commandments. That is true hospitality and service. That is how a good steward springs into action when he comes upon a neighbor in need. And Jesus says to each of us personally, just as He did in today's Gospel, "Go and do likewise."

TWIN PARISH EDUCATION CAMPAIGN
Dear Parishioners and Friends,
In our prayers for this campaign, we came across this quote from the New Testament: "You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God." 2 Corinthians 9:11. These words of St. Paul spoke to us and we hope that they speak to you. Generous people are God's agents of mercy in a suffering world. God has blessed us richly so that we in turn can bless other people. Let God work through you today and donate to the education fund for St Joseph Parish in Haiti. No gift is too small to help a needy Haitian child. This is the final week of a two-month campaign. Please send your gift to: Helping Hugs, Inc., P.O. Box 24477, St. Simons Island GA 31522 or contribute on the website: www.helpinghugsinc.org. If you've already made a gift, please pray for the success of the campaign. Thank you.
