THE ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF SAVANNAH WELCOMES
 BISHOP-ELECT STEPHEN D. PARKES
 15TH BISHOP OF SAVANNAH

July 8, 2020

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace to you and Peace in Christ Jesus our Lord!

I am pleased to inform you that this morning, His Holiness Pope Francis honored our diocese with the appointment of a new bishop! Father Stephen Parkes, a priest of the Diocese of Orlando, has been named the 15th bishop of Savannah. We are deeply grateful to our Holy Father for this gift to our diocese.

How fortunate we are to welcome a seasoned and gifted pastor! In his 22 years of priestly ministry, he has served in parishes, directed souls, and was the campus minister at the University of Central Florida for nearly a decade. His pastoral zeal and concern are immediately evident when meeting him. He has also served in various capacities and on multiple councils and boards advising the bishops of his diocese.

His ordination and installation will be at the Cathedral Basilica of St. John the Baptist on Wednesday, September 23rd, the Feast of Saint Padre Pio. Details will be forthcoming. We warmly welcome Bishop-elect Parkes to Savannah as he takes up the mantle of shepherding our diocese.

Please keep him in your prayers these next few months as he prepares for his ordination and installation as the next bishop of the Diocese of Savannah!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Very Reverend Daniel F. Firmin, J.C.L.
 Diocesan Administrator
 Diocese of Savannah

Sunday and weekday Masses are celebrated privately by priests and Mass intentions are being honored. There are several available openings for Mass Intentions. If you would like to have a Mass said for someone, please call the office.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - JULY 12

In today's Gospel from Matthew, our Lord shares the Parable of the Sower who scatters seed on many different kinds of land. This is a wonderful analogy for the stewardship way of life, demonstrating the slow and steady, yet powerful effect this lifestyle will have on those who fully embrace it.

In this parable, some of the seeds land on a path where birds carry them off before they can begin to take root. Other seeds land on rocky ground with little soil. As soon as things begin to heat up, they get scorched and die. Then there are seeds that land on soil cluttered with thorns which choke the seeds just as they are beginning to grow strong.

Finally, there are seeds that land on deep and healthy soil. These seeds produce abundant fruit.

This is where the stewardship way of life comes in. When we give the best of our time, talent and treasure to serve God and others, we create lives filled with that rare "good soil" needed for the Kingdom of God to thrive.

How does this happen? Stewardship living removes the "rocks" of mistrust from our lives as we develop an unshakable faith that God will always provide for our needs. It clears away the "thorns" of worldly ambition that make us self-centered, fill us with needless anxiety and stifle our focus on God. Stewardship living requires a deep reliance on the Word of God and the sacraments which continuously nourish and fertilize the soil of our lives.

Let us deepen our commitment to this way of life, allowing the Sower to do His work in us, slowly and steadily. The Master Gardner will surely produce miraculous fruits through us.

Solidarity Fund for the CHURCH IN AFRICA

Next week, our parish will take up a collection for the SOLIDARITY FUND FOR THE CHURCH IN AFRICA. Although the Church in Africa is growing, many still lack access to basic resources and pastoral care. Many suffer due to high rates of poverty and unemployment, illiteracy, and poor education. The Solidarity Fund supports pastoral projects that foster lasting peace and reconciliation in a continent often marked by division and tension. To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/africa.

MANNA HOUSE

Manna House is an area outreach ministry that feeds the hungry seven days a week. Because of the COVID-19 outbreak the need has been greater than ever. Volunteers are packing bag lunches with protein, fruits and a little something sweet, and serving well over 300 a day. They are running low on items and are in need of the following; baked goods and fruit. The baked goods may be homemade or store bought (Please mark if the sweet have nuts.) Items can be dropped off in church narthex in the box labeled "Manna House" Mon-Sat 8am-9:30am or Sunday around Mass hours.

Monetary donations may be sent to Rev. Jim Crandall, 138 Cypress Run Drive, Brunswick, Ga 31520.

WEDDING COORDINATOR NEEDED - If you are interested in helping with this wonderful ministry, please call the office and let us know. Wedding coordinator(s) work with the couple to help plan the logistics of their ceremony and assist the Celebrant in coordinating the rehearsal and wedding day within the parameters of St. William Church. We are looking for one more person to add to our team.

FUNERAL COORDINATOR NEEDED - If you have a compassionate and loving heart, and are interested in meeting with families to help them plan a beautiful and meaningful Funeral Mass or Service for their deceased loved one, please call the office. After meeting with the priest, often times families still need assistance choosing scripture readings, lectors and Eucharistic Ministers and other details. Our Funeral Coordinator(s) help them with these details. Our Music Minister assists them with appropriate music for their service, and our Bereavement Committee provides a reception for the family and friends if wanted. We would like to add one more person to this team.

DIOCESAN DIRECTIVES & COVID 19 UPDATES

Due to continuing concerns about the number of COVID-19 cases in the state of Georgia, the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday mass will remain in place at least through the last Sunday of July (7/26/20).

All of the guidelines and best practices that were implemented to keep our places of worship safe and healthy remain in effect, and we continue to work to decrease any possible risk to you and your families.

We would like to remind everyone that if you are ill, do not come to church. Any parishioners who are uncomfortable about attending Sunday Mass due to the coronavirus or the safety measures implemented at your local parish are excused from their obligation to attend. In addition, if parishioners are in the higher risk category due to current illness, age or suffering a chronic health condition or compromised immune system, they are also asked to remain at home.

We ask everyone to take whatever precautions they deem necessary to feel safe during the crisis.

Bless our Diocese of Savannah with many vocations to the

Gathering Song . . . . . Glory and Praise to Our God
Dan Schutte ©1976 OCP

Refrain: Glory and praise to our God,
who alone gives light to our days,
Many are the blessings He bears
to those who trust in His ways

We, the daughters and sons of Him who built the valleys and plains, Praise the wonders our God has done in every heart that sings. Refrain

In His wisdom He strengthens us, like gold that's tested in fire. Though the power of sin prevails, our God is there to save. Refrain

First Reading . . . . . Isaiah 55:10-11

Thus says the LORD:

Just as from the heavens
the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth,
making it fertile and fruitful,
giving seed to the one who sows
and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be
that goes forth from my mouth;
my word shall not return to me void,
but shall do my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it.

The word of the Lord. . . . . Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm . . . . . The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

Second Reading . . . . . Romans 8:18-23

Brothers and sisters:

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us.

For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God; for creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord but because of the one who subjected it, in hope that creation itself would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God. We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now; and not only that, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit,
we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption,
the redemption of our bodies.

The word of the Lord. . . . . Thanks be to God

Gospel . . . . . Matthew 13:1-23

On that day, Jesus went out of the house and sat down by the sea. Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood along the shore. And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil.
It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep, and when the sun rose it was scorched, and it withered for lack of roots. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.
Whoever has ears ought to hear."

[The disciples approached him and said, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" He said to them in reply,
"Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted. To anyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; from anyone who has not, even what he has will be taken away. This is why I speak to them in parables, because they look but do not see and hear but do not listen or understand. Isaiah's prophecy is fulfilled in them, which says:

*You shall indeed hear
but not understand,
you shall indeed look
but never see.
Gross is the heart of this people,
they will hardly hear with their ears,
they have closed their eyes,
lest they see with their eyes
and hear with their ears
and understand with their hearts
and be converted,
and I heal them.*

"But blessed are your eyes, because they see, and your ears, because they hear. Amen, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

"Hear then the parable of the sower. The seed sown on the path is the one who hears the word of the kingdom without understanding it, and the evil one comes and steals away what was sown in his heart. The seed sown on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and receives it at once with joy. But he has no root and lasts only for a time. When some tribulation or persecution comes because of the word, he immediately falls away. The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word, but then worldly anxiety and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit. But the seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.”]

The Gospel of the Lord. . . Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Preparation of the Gifts . . . Seed, Scattered and Sown

Dan Feiten ©1987 International Liturgy Publications

Refrain: Seed, scattered and sown, wheat gathered and grown, bread, broken and shared as one, the living bread of God. Vine, fruit of the land, wine, work of our hands, one cup that is shared by all; the living cup, the living bread of God.

Is not the bread we break a sharing in our Lord?
Is not the cup we bless the blood of Christ out--poured?

Refrain

The seed which falls on rock will wither and will die.
The seed within good ground will flower and have life.

Refrain

Communion Song . . . . . Unless a Grain of Wheat

Bernadette Farrell ©1983 OCP

Refrain: Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it remains but a single grain with no life.

If we have died with Him, then we shall live with Him;
if we hold firm, we shall reign with him. Refrain

If anyone serves me, then they must follow me;
wherever I am, my servants will be. Refrain

Make your home in me as I make mine in you;
those who remain in me bear much fruit. Refrain

If you remain in me and my word lives in you,
then you will be my disciples. Refrain

Those who love me are loved by my Father;
we shall be with them and dwell in them. Refrain

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you;
peace which the world cannot give is my gift. Refrain

Sending Song . . . . . How Can I Keep from Singing?

Endless song, Public Domain

My life flows on in endless song;
Above earth's lamentation.
I hear the real though far-off hymn
that hails a new creation.

Refrain: No storm can shake my in-most calm,
while to that rock I'm clinging.
Since love is Lord of heaven and earth,
How can I keep from singing?

Through all the tumult and the strife,
I hear that music ringing;
It sounds and echoes in my soul;
How can I keep from singing? Refrain

What though the tempest 'round me roar,
I hear the truth it liveth.
What though the darkness 'round me close,
Songs in the night it giveth. Refrain

Remember those most vulnerable.*

*May we who have the luxury of working from home

Let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors.*

Amen.
