Many of us say that we believe in God. We go to church on Sunday. We volunteer for events at our parish. But when life gets hard and the pressure is on, when things aren't going our way, do we really believe and put our trust in the Lord? When we live a life of gratitude, being thankful for the gifts we have been given, we really do see that God is providing all that we need. It opens our hearts to see God's active presence in our daily lives.

PARISH WIDE EMAIL - In an effort to provide Updates and information on St William and the Diocese we will begin sending out a weekly email. ## PARISH ACTIVITIES THIS WEEK

As we continue our lives in the midst of the very fluid coronavirus pandemic, we also continue to observe the directive from the Office of the Bishop of the Diocese of Savannah regarding Masses. At present, there are NO PUBLIC MASSES celebrated in any parish churches or missions in the Diocese of Savannah.

The Diocese will review the protocol on April 1 to determine whether Palm Sunday and Holy Week services will be open to the public.

The church and chapel are open for private prayer and personal devotion, daily from 9am to 4pm. The church is limited to 10 parishioners at one time (per County ordinance and CDC recommendations); the chapel is limited to 4. If necessary, form a waiting line and enter when someone leaves. We ask you to keep a distance of 6 feet between you and others. (Please bring your own hand sanitizer and wipes.)

Please continue to support our parish church through online giving on our website, by mail. We also now have donation boxes in the church and at the office for your convenience.

If there is a need for the Anointing of the Sick, Last Rites or if there is a death, call Fr. Peter at (985) 516-9088. Leave a message if he does not answer. He will get back to you as soon as possible.

Updates will be posted on our website, stwill.net, and emailed to those on our email list, as soon as we get them. The weekly bulletin is also available on the website under the Parish Life tab. If you have any questions, please call the church office and we will do our best to assist you, 638-2647.

FATHER NICHOLAS REYNOLDS - Fr. Reynolds presents 6 practical things every Catholic family can do to keep up their spiritual life during this time of instability. Watch him at <https://youtu.be/bEY8XZtbLvY>.

PILLOWS FOR SAFE HARBOR - Safe Harbor helps hundreds of children escape violence, abuse, and neglect each year. The Council of Catholic Women is collecting new pillows to fill the beautiful pillowcases made by Sew and So for Safe Harbor. We need 24 new standard pillows. Please take a pillow tag from the Safe Harbor "bed" in the narthex. You can drop off the new pillow in the CCW bin in the narthex.

TWIN PARISH NEWS - The focus of our Spring Shipment request for Haiti is brass and wind instruments. Father Faustin still needs these instruments to occupy the children and young people of his parish, particularly during school holidays. He has an intensive summer music program and can use 30 to 40 more instruments. He tells us that Cotes-de-Fer has a very high rate of juvenile delinquency because the youth do not have any form of entertainment. He believes that music is "the most powerful weapon to use" against the problem. Will you help? Please mention this need to your friends and family. Call or text Mary Lynch at 399-6501 or marylynch45@gmail.com to make a donation.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

5th Sunday in Lent - March 29, 2020

5th Sunday in Lent

At this point in our Lenten journey, it is tempting to grow weary of the spiritual disciplines we have taken on. Today's readings inspire us to remain faithful, in grateful response to a God who loves us so much.

In our first reading, the prophet Ezekiel speaks God's own words to us. "I will put my spirit in you that you may live... I have promised and I will do it, says the Lord." Our God wants to be so closely united to us that we are one with Him.

And He has promised He will do it. But only if we make room for Him by making Him THE priority of our lives. Putting God first is a grateful response that is very pleasing to Him.

How can we do this? Our second reading, from Romans, tell us. "Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh... you are in the spirit if only the Spirit of God dwells in you."

The disciplines of Lent and a stewardship way of life are wonderful gifts that free us from too great an attachment to "the flesh." The sacrifices we make as Christian stewards are not meant to restrict our freedom and joy. Quite the contrary. They are tools to help us find the real freedom and joy that only come when we make room in our lives for God.

As we journey closer to the Passion of our Lord, let us intensify our Lenten resolutions and our stewardship way of life, inviting the Holy Spirit to take over more and more of our lives. By Easter, we will be freer to rejoice in Him and truly pleasing to God.
