Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness!

Peter's Pence Collection
Be a Witness of Charity

Next week, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Please join us as we celebrate the Retirement of Monsignor Kenneally
Sunday, June 28

In order to allow everyone to say "Best Wishes and Thank You" to Monsignor, and because we continue to be limited to the number of people allowed in building at one time, we will have 2 receptions. One after the 8am Mass and one after the 10:30am Mass. Please choose the one you wish to attend. Space will be limited at either. Reservations will not be taken.

DIOCESAN DIRECTIVES & COVID 19 UPDATES - JUNE 25, 2020

My Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Diocese of Savannah,

Due to continuing concerns about the number of COVID-19 cases in the state of Georgia, the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday mass will remain in place at least through the last Sunday of July (7/26/20).

All of the guidelines and best practices that were implemented to keep our places of worship safe and healthy remain in effect, and we continue to work to decrease any possible risk to you and your families. Additionally, Governor Brian Kemp's Executive Order 06.11.20.01 - Empowering a Healthy Georgia, permits meetings of up to 50 people if social distancing can be observed. Parishes may resume meetings and other church gatherings within these guidelines at the discretion of the pastor.

I would like to remind everyone that if you are ill, do not come to church. Any parishioners who are uncomfortable about attending Sunday Mass due to the coronavirus or the safety measures implemented at your local parish are excused from their obligation to attend. In addition, if parishioners are in the higher risk category due to current illness, age or suffering a chronic health condition or compromised immune system, they are also asked to remain at home.

We ask everyone to take whatever precautions they deem necessary to feel safe during the crisis.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help, pray for us!

May the Lord Jesus bless you and your loved ones and keep you all safe. With prayers for each of you, I am

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
Very Reverend Daniel F. Firmin, J.C.L.
Diocesan Administrator, Diocese of Savannah

WEDDING COORDINATOR NEEDED

Our beloved Wedding Coordinator, Barbara Pelletier, is retiring! If you are interested in helping with this wonderful ministry, please call the office and let us know. Wedding coordinator(s) work with the couple to help plan the logistics of their ceremony and assist the Celebrant in coordinating the rehearsal and wedding day within the parameters of St. William Church. This can be position for one, two or even three people who would work as a team.

FUNERAL COORDINATOR NEEDED

If you have a compassionate and loving heart, and are interested in meeting with families to help them plan a beautiful and meaningful Funeral Mass or Service for their deceased loved one, please call the office. After meeting with the priest, often times families still need assistance choosing scripture readings, lectors and Eucharistic Ministers and other details. Our Funeral Coordinator helps them with these details. Our Music Minister assists them with appropriate music for their service, and our Bereavement Committee provides a reception for the family and friends if wanted.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - JUNE 28

Today's readings take us back to some basics of stewardship living and demonstrate the genius of this way of life.

Our First Reading, from 2 Kings, shows us the necessity and power of hospitality. It recounts the story of a woman who showed loving hospitality to a visitor, inviting him to dinner with her family and arranging a room for him in their home so that he would have a comfortable place to stay during his travels through her town. She reached out to the man in a simple and practical manner to make him feel welcome and was rewarded in an extraordinary way.

In our Second Reading, from the Letter to the Romans, St. Paul reminds us of the power of our Baptism and how this sacrament makes us disciples. What does that mean for us here and now? St. Paul tells us very clearly: "You must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus." We must live for Christ! Nothing less will do.

Our Lord proclaims this same instruction in a rather shocking way in our Gospel passage from Matthew: "Whoever finds his life [by living for oneself] will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." But how do we lose our life? Precisely through loving actions towards others, loving them as if they were Christ. "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple... he will surely not lose his reward."

The simple brilliance of stewardship living? Only our infinitely creative, compassionate God could conceive it!

Gathering Song Church of God, Elect and Glorious

Church of God, elect and glorious, holy nation, chosen race;
called as God's own special people, royal priests and heirs of grace:
know the purpose of your calling,
show to all God's mighty deeds;
tell of love which knows no limits, grace which meets all human needs.

God has called you out of darkness into his most marv'ulous light, brought his truth to life within you, turned your blindness into sight.
Let your light so shine around you that God's name is glorified;
and all find fresh hope and purpose in Christ Jesus crucified.

First Reading 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a

One day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her.
Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine.
So she said to her husband, "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God.
Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there."
Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight.
Later Elisha asked, "Can something be done for her?"
His servant Gehazi answered, "Yes!
She has so sons, and her husband is getting on in years."
Elisha said, "Call her."
When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, "This time next year you will be fondling a baby son."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm . . . Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

Second ReadingRomans 6:3-4, 8-11

Brothers and sisters:
Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?
We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

If, then, we have died with Christ,
we believe that we shall also live with him.
We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more;

death no longer has power over him.
As to his death, he died to sin once and for all;
as to his life, he lives for God.
Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Matthew 10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles:
"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me,
and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not
worthy of me;
and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.
Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me,
and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.
Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.
And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple - amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

The Gospel of the Lord. . . Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Preparation of the GiftsFor the Sake of Christ

Refrain: For the sake of Christ, I willingly accept my weakness and my trials, for when I am powerless, then I am strong.

Although in God's love my life was blest, my faith was given to the test.
For mercy did I pray, and then I heard God say,
"My grace is enough for you.

My grace is enough for you." Refrain

And so when I am weak, then I am free.
The power of Christ will rest in me.
Through all that I endure, the love of God is sure.

His Grace is enough for me.
His grace is enough for me. Refrain

He died for all, that those who live might live no longer for themselves.

Oh, live for Christ who gave his life, and now is raised on high! Refrain

Communion Song Eat This Bread

Refrain: Eat this bread, drink this cup, come to me and never be hungry.
Eat this bread, drink this cup, trust in me and you shall not thirst.
(Cantor sings verses)

Communion (2): Keep in Mind

Refrain: Keep in mind that Jesus Christ has died for us and is risen from the dead.
He is our saving Lord, he is joy for all ages.

If we die with the Lord, we shall live with the Lord.
If we endure with the Lord, we shall reign with the Lord.

Refrain

In him all our sorrow, in him all our joy.
In him hope of glory, in him all our love.

Refrain

In him our redemption, in him all our grace.
In him our salvation, in him all our peace.

Refrain

Sending Song Christ Before Us

Christ before us, Christ beside us,
Christ to guide us all our days.
He to carry all our sorrows,
he to bear us perfect grace.
Jesus Savior, Friend and Brother, intercessor, Son of God.
Save your people in your dying,
and in rising, conquer death.

May we be for one another all that you would have us be.
May we live your law of kindness,
love, compassion, charity.
May we climb your holy Mountain;
may we see your holy face!
Visit now this humble dwelling;
dwell within this holy place.

God Before us through the ages;
Christ beside us here today.
Spirit, lead us forth forever;
guide and help us all our days.
Christ the Savior, God the Living, Great Creator, Spirit blest!
Holy Three in One Immortal, come and be our welcome Guest.
