Prayer in Hurricane Season

God, our Father, Creator and Lord of the Universe, You have set the earth on its foundation and all elements of nature to obey your command. We humbly beseech you to keep us safe from all dangers and calm the storms that may threaten us. May we be secure in your loving protection and serve you always with grateful hearts. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns forever. Amen

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME AUGUST 23, 2020

Let's be honest. If we are striving to live the stewardship way of life, it's not going to be easy. Dying to self and living for Christ and others is tough. It's the work of a lifetime. But in the end, it's the only work that really matters and the only life that truly satisfies.

Our Gospel passage, from Matthew, reflects this challenging reality. Jesus tells His disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross and follow me." This sounds harsh. Why would anyone want to do this?

Our Lord has the answer, of course. "Whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

It's all about love. Jesus loved (and loves) us totally, giving us all of Himself on the Cross, in His Word, and in the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist. And so we must choose: love of self, or love of God and others — which is tough, but fulfilling and leads to the eternal reward of heaven. Jesus promises that He "will come with his angels in his Father's glory and then he will repay all according to his conduct."

Let us make the tough choice to lose our life for Christ's sake in grateful response to His love. Honestly, what better life could there be?

August 26, 2020

My Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Diocese of Savannah,

While the number of COVID-19 cases in Georgia is beginning to decline (yesterday, the seven-day moving average of new cases reported was the lowest since July 2), we are still cautious and concerned for the health of everyone in our diocese. Therefore, after consultation with Bishop-elect Parkes and the College of Consultors, I am extending the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass through September 23, 2020 – the date of the Ordination and Installation of Bishop-elect Parkes as the 15th Bishop of the Diocese of Savannah.

All of the guidelines and best practices that were implemented to keep our places of worship safe and healthy remain in effect, and we continue to work to decrease any possible risk to you and your families. One change to these guidelines concerns capacity: the churches will be open for worship at 25% of full capacity or whatever number is reached while maintaining social distancing guidelines.

Our Catholic Schools are open for in-person learning. We are returning to work. Everyday life is resuming in some fashion and I encourage people to begin coming back to Mass to worship Almighty God with their community. That being said, I remind everyone that if you are ill, do not come to church or school. Any parishioners who are uncomfortable attending Sunday Mass due to the coronavirus or the safety measures implemented at your local parish are excused from their obligation to attend. In addition, if parishioners are in the higher risk category due to illness, age or a chronic health condition or compromised immune system, they are asked to remain at home.

While this dispensation is extended, we need to continue to tend to our spiritual lives. The Eucharist is the source and summit of our lives as Christians and our presence at Sunday Mass is essential to our relationship with the Lord Jesus. Stay safe and healthy in body and soul!

Our Lady of Perpetual Help, pray for us!

With love and prayers, I remain,

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Very Reverend Daniel F. Firmin, J.C.L.
Diocesan Administrator

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, hear our prayer and let our cry come unto you. Bless our Diocese of Savannah with many vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life. Give the men and women you call the light to understand your gift and the love to follow always in the footsteps of your priestly son. Amen

Opening: Christ Before Us

Janet Sullivan Whitaker @1990 OCP

Christ before us, Christ beside us, Christ to guide us all our days. He to carry all our sorrows, he to bear us perfect grace. Jesus, Savior, Friend and Brother, Intercessor, Son of God, Save your people in your dying, and in rising, conquer death.

May we be for one another all that you would have us be. May we live your law of kindness, love, compassion, charity. May we climb your hold mountain; may we see your holy face! Visit now this humble dwelling; dwell within this holy place.

God before us through the ages; Christ beside us here today. Spirit, lead us forth forever; guide and help us all our days. Christ the Savior, God the Living, Great Creator, Spirit blest! Holy Three in One Immortal, come and be our welcome guest.

O Redeemer, fill your servants with your words of lasting life. Give to those with hands of healing love transcending pain and strife. Make us loving sons and daughters; make us holy, kind and true, Sent to labor for your Kingdom - restless till we rest in you.

Reading 1 JER 20:7-9

You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped; you were too strong for me, and you triumphed. All the day I am an object of laughter; everyone mocks me. Whenever I speak, I must cry out, violence and outrage is my message; the word of the LORD has brought me derision and reproach all the day. I say to myself, I will not mention him, I will speak in his name no more. But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones; I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Common Psalm 19, 27, 34, 95, 106, 103 or 145 may be used in place of this psalm. Psalm 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9
R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.
Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP (R&A p. 126)

R. (2b) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God whom I seek; for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary to see your power and your glory, For your kindness is a greater good than life; my lips shall glorify you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Thus will I bless you while I live; lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name. As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul be satisfied, and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

You are my help, and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy. My soul clings fast to you; your right hand upholds me.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Reading 2 ROM 12:1-2

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia MT 11:29AB

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Take my yoke upon you, says the Lord, and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

MT 16:21-27

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised.

Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you." He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Refrain:

Where two or three are gathered in my name, love will be found, Life will abound. By name we are called, from water we are sent: To become the eyes and hands of Christ.

One we become, no longer strangers. No longer empty or frail, Filled with the Spirit, ev'ry hunger satisfied. Christ is the center of our lives. Refrain

One in the Spirit, one in the Lord. One in the breaking of the bread. Life giving witness of our dying and new life. Held by the promise in our hands. Refrain

Not what we are, but what we become. Not what we say, but what we do. Living the challenge as bearers of light. We are the eyes and hands of Christ. Refrain

Communion:

Blest Are They

David Haas @1985. GIA Publications, Inc.

Blest are they, the poor in spirit, theirs is the kingdom of God. Blest are they, full of sorrow, they shall be consoled.

Refrain:

Rejoice and be glad! Blessed are you, holy are you! Rejoice and be glad! Yours is the kingdom of God!

Blest are they, the lowly ones, they shall inherit the earth. Blest are they who hunger and thirst, they shall have their fill. Refrain

Blest are they who show mercy, mercy shall be theirs. Blest are they, the pure of heart, they shall see God! Refrain

Blest are they who seek peace, they are the children of God. Blest are they who suffer in faith, the glory of God is theirs. Refrain

Blest are you who suffer hate, all because of me. Rejoice and be glad, yours is the kingdom; shine for all to see. Refrain
