This is the essence of stewardship – everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts that God has given us, especially our very own lives. Pray to God daily and ask Him how He is calling you to live the life that He intended for you.

CR.EE.D (K-8) and TEEN (9-12) CLASSES will begin on Sunday, September 13. CREED will meet from 9am - 10:15am. TEENS will be meeting from 11:30am - 1:00pm. In effort to help things run smoothly, please print out registration forms and waivers from our parish website, stwill.net. Bring the completed forms and payment to the classroom on September 13. Children and their families should go directly to their designated classrooms when they enter the parish hall. Classrooms will be clearly marked with appropriate grades. The fees will remain at $35 for grades K-5th, $50 for grades 6-12th with an additional $35 for Sacraments in grades 2 and 8. For more information, contact Nancy Power at 638-2651 or email powernancy@comcast.net.

This year, the church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 20, under the theme of "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you." On this day, catechists are formally commissioned for ministry to the community. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each baptized person plays in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

SAFETY PROTOCOLS AT ST. WILLIAM

The safety and protection of all our parishioners and visitors is paramount. If you are experiencing any symptoms of infectious disease, know or unknown in origin, we ask that you take advantage of the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass, and make use of our live streaming service on our YouTube channel StWilliamonSSI.

Within the church, please observe overall capacity limits and maintain proper distancing between individuals and family groupings. The wearing of masks is permitted and encouraged, especially when social distancing cannot be observed for a period of 15 minutes or more. Please feel free to make use of the hand sanitizers provided in the vestibule.

At this time, we cannot hand out paper bulletins. The bulletin is emailed weekly to parishioners and posted online on our website. If you know someone that would like to receive the bulletin via email that currently does not, please ask them to call or email the office to be added to our list. There are a few printed bulletins in the office for those who do not have email addresses.

The capacity of the church at this time is a maximum of 100 parishioners and visitors. We have done our best to mark off pews and provide guidelines to assist with social distancing.

Collection baskets for Masses are in the Narthex of the Church as you enter for Mass. You can also support our parish church through online giving on our website, by mail, or by using the donation boxes in the church and at the office for your convenience.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 13, 2020

Today's readings call us to look inward to the state of our hearts, our thoughts and emotions.

Our first reading, from Sirach, addresses the complicated emotion of anger. "Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the Lord?" We have all been wounded by others at some point, some perhaps quite deeply. Our emotions are gifts from God. But we must steward them well, rather than allowing them to overcome us.

How do we do this? Sirach tells us. "Remember your last days, set enmity aside... Remember the Most High's covenant and overlook faults." We embrace the stewardship mindset — not brooding over hurts, but recalling all the gifts our good God has given us, all the love He continually pours out upon us, and we put our focus and trust in Him.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus reminds us of the true position we have before Him in light of all that He has done for us, comparing the kingdom of heaven to a "king who decided to settle accounts with his servants." In the parable, a debtor is brought before the king, owing such an overwhelming debt that it could not possibly be repaid. Yet, the king is filled with compassion for the servant, forgives the debt and lets him go free.

Doesn't that sound like each of us in relation to the King of Kings? The Father has given us life, and then sent His only Son to die for us to free us from our sin "debts" and make eternal life with Him possible for us. It is impossible for us to repay this debt. All we can do is thank God by giving Him our whole selves — inside and out.

What joy and freedom we find in the stewardship way of life!

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, hear our prayer and let our cry come unto you. Bless our Diocese of Savannah with many vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life. Give the men and women you call the light to understand your gift and the love to follow always in the footsteps of your priestly son. Amen

Opening:

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

In Babilone Public Domain

There's a wideness in God's mercy like the wideness of the sea; There's a kindness in his justice which is more than liberty. There is plentiful redemption in the blood that has been shed; There is joy for all the members in the sorrows of the Head.

For the love of God is broader than the measures of our mind, And the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind. If our love were but more simple We should take him at his word, And our lives would be thanksgiving for the goodness of our Lord.

Troubled souls why will you scatter like a crowd of frightened sheep? Foolish hearts, why will you wander from a love so true and deep? There is welcome for the sinner and more graces for the good; There is mercy with the Savior, there is healing in his blood.

Reading 1 SIR 27:30—28:7

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins? Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial PS 103:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12

R. (8) The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

Bless the LORD, O my soul; and all my being, bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

He pardons all your iniquities, heals all your ills. He redeems your life from destruction, crowns you with kindness and compassion.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

He will not always chide, nor does he keep his wrath forever. Not according to our sins does he deal with us, nor does he requite us according to our crimes.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

For as the heavens are high above the earth, so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far has he put our transgressions from us.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

Reading 2 ROM 14:7-9

Brothers and sisters: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I give you a new commandment, says the Lord: love one another as I have loved you.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel MT 18:21-35

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Presentation: Love Goes On
Bernadette Farrell ©2004 Bernadette Farrell OCP

Love is patient, love is kind, never ending, never ending; slow to anger, Rich in mercy, love goes on beyond all time.

Love is faithful, love is true, ever joyful and forgiving; Love endures when life is over, love is old and love is new.

Love alone has shaped our soul, and our hearts are always restless Until love becomes our purpose, new creation to unfold.

Love our journey, love our goal. Through our faith may move the mountains, Love alone can heal the broken; only love will make us whole.

Love, our Savior's one command: "Love the way that I have loved you," With a towel and a basin, washing feet with servant hands.

There are three gifts that remain when all other things have perished, Only faith, hope love enduring, and the greatest gift is love.

Communion: Loving and Forgiving

Scott Soper ©1992 OCP

Refrain: Loving and forgiving are you, O Lord; slow to anger, rich in kindness, loving and forgiving are you.

All my being, bless the Lord, bless the holy name of God, All my being, bless the Lord, remembering the goodness of God. Refrain

God forgives us all our sins, healing those who live in pain, Saving us from final death, God fills us with goodness and love. Refrain

Good and gracious is the Lord, slow to anger, rich in love. God remembers not our sins; forgiving and loving is God. Refrain

As heaven soars above the earth, so great the love of God for us, As far as east is from the west, the Lord takes our sins from us. Refrain

Sending: Canticle of the Sun
Marty Haugen ©1980 GIA Publications, Inc.

Refrain:
The heavens are telling the glory of God, and all creation is shouting for joy, Come, dance in the forest, come, playing in the field, And sing, sing to the glory of the Lord.

Praise for the sun, the bringer of day, he carries the light of the Lord in his rays; The moon and the stars who light up the way unto your throne. Refrain

Praise for the wind that blows through the trees, the sea's mighty storms, the gentlest breeze; They blow where they will, they blow where they please to please the Lord. Refrain

Praise for the rain that waters our fields, and blesses our crops so all the earth yields; From death unto life her myst'ry revealed springs forth in joy. Refrain

Praise for the fire who gives us his light, the warmth of the sun to brighten our night; He dances with joy, his spirit so bright, he sings of you. Refrain

Praise for the earth who makes life to grow, the creatures you made to let your life show; The flowers and trees that help us to know the heart of love. Refrain
