You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

This Sunday, the church celebrates Catechetical Sunday under the theme of "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you." On this day, catechists are formally commissioned for ministry to the community. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each baptized person plays in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to re-dedicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

Next week, we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, over 40 % of dioceses in the United States are considered mission territories because they are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps ease the struggle of these dioceses. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Friends of Davis Love Foundation is a program administered by the Davis Love Foundation designed to help raise money for charities participating in the program. Each participating charity sells raffle tickets ($20 each) for the chance to win a brand new vehicle from Nalley Brunswick Automobiles. 100% of the money collected through the raffle is distributed back to the participating charities. St. Francis Xavier Catholic School is one of those participating charities.

Help St Francis Xavier School raise money by purchasing Raffle tickets ($20 per ticket) or making a tax-deductible donation. Students from the school will be selling tickets after Masses this weekend, the weekend of October 20/21 and October 31/November 1. Tickets are also available in the church office.

St Vincent de Paul is open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 10-4

The St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry has the following specific needs if you are able to assist: canned fruits (Peaches, Pears, Fruit Cocktail, Mixed Fruit, Pineapple, Mandarin Oranges, etc.) All the above in water or light syrup, if possible. Cut Green Beans and Whole Kernel Corn in cans, Vienna sausage and Luncheon meats (Spam, Treat, Deviled Ham) in pull-top cans, Solid White or Chunk Light Tuna in cans or pouches, Pasta & Meat in microwavable bowls, and Pasta & Meat items in cans.

Please think in terms of regular-size items rather than large or super-size. Pop-top cans and microwavable items meet the needs of those we serve who do not have kitchen facilities. BOGO's are a great way to buy one for your family and one for our pantry. Basic personal hygiene items for men and women are always needed.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER 20, 2020

Though we can never fully grasp the infinite perfection of God and His ways, a basic knowledge of Scripture reveals that God's logic often differs from worldly logic.

Our first reading, from Isaiah, reminds us that God often thinks bigger than we do. "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts." As His followers we must strive as best we can to think as God does, using our time (and our talents and treasure, too) with eternity in mind.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus offers us a glimpse of the "Godly logic" of the Father through a parable of a landowner hiring workers for his vineyard. Some workers are called early in the day, others not until very late. Yet the landowner pays them all a full day's wage. This angered the laborers who had worked longest. But those laborers were relying on human logic and human calculations. They were not thinking as God does.

This can happen to us Christian stewards as well. We can grumble and complain (at least internally) when we compare ourselves to others and sense that not everyone is contributing as much as we are to the parish, the neighborhood, within our family and so on. At those moments, we need to think bigger!

We must remember that it is a great privilege to have been called by the Father to work in His vineyard. Living the stewardship way of life brings us meaning, depth and purpose.

Let's embrace this Godly thinking and thank Him for calling us to this way of life.

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, hear our prayer and let our cry come unto you. Bless our Diocese of Savannah with many vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life. Give the men and women you call the light to understand your gift and the love to follow always in the footsteps of your priestly son. Amen

Gathering:

God We Praise You - Nettleton

1982, The Jubilate Group. Hope Publishing Co.

God, we praise you! God, we bless you! God, we name you sov'reign Lord! Mighty King whom angels worship, Father, by your Church adored: All creation shows your glory; Heav'n and earth draw near your throne, Singing, "Holy, holy, holy, Lord of hosts and God alone!"

True apostles, faithful prophets, Saints who set their world ablaze, Martyrs, once unknown, unheeded, Join one growing song of praise, While your Church on earth confesses One majestic Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, God, our hope eternally.

Jesus Christ, the King of glory, Everlasting Son of God, Humble was your virgin mother, Hard the lonely path you trod: By your cross is sin defeated, Hell confronted face to face, Heaven opened to believers, Sinners justified by grace.

Christ, at God's right hand victorious, You will judge the world you made; Lord, in mercy help your servants for whose freedom you have paid: Raise us up from dust to glory; Guard us from all sin today. King enthroned above all praises, Save your people, God, we pray.

IS 55:6-9

Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near.
Let the scoundrel forsake his way,
and the wicked his thoughts;
let him turn to the LORD for mercy;
to our God, who is generous in forgiving.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts,

nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.
As high as the heavens are above the earth,
so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.
The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

PHIL 1:20C-24, 27A

Brothers and sisters: Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me life is Christ, and death is gain. If I go on living in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. And I do not know which I shall choose. I am caught between the two. I long to depart this life and be with Christ, for that is far better. Yet that I remain in the flesh is more necessary for your benefit. Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel

MT 20:1-16A

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Going out about nine o'clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.' So they went off. And he went out again around noon, and around three o'clock, and did likewise. Going out about five o'clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day?' They answered, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard.' When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.' When those who had started about five o'clock came, each received the usual daily wage. So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat.' He said to one of them in reply, 'My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?' Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last." The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Preparation: Your Words Are Spirit and Life
1993, Bernadette Farrell, OCP

Refrain: Your words are spirit and life, O Lord: Richer than gold, stronger than death. Your words are spirit and life, O Lord; Life everlasting.

God's law is perfect, refreshing the soul, Reviving the weary spirit God's rule can be trusted: bringing us wisdom Bringing God's wisdom to birth. Refrain

God's precepts keep us; their purpose is right. They gladden the hearts of people. God's command is so clear it brings us new vision; Bringing God's light to our eyes. Refrain

Living by God's truth is holy and sure; God's presence is everlasting. God's truth is eternal, bringing us justice; Bringing God's justice to earth. Refrain

God's word is precious, desired more than gold; Worth more than we dare imagine, And, sweeter than honey, this word will feed us, Bringing fulfillment and joy. Refrain

Communion: We Will Rise Again
1985, David Haas. OCP

Like a shepherd I will feed you; I will gather you with care. I will lead you and hold you close to my heart.

Refrain : We will run and not grow weary, for our God will be our strength, and we will fly like the eagle, we will rise again.

I am strength to the weary; to the weak I am new life. Though the young may grow weary, I will be their hope. Refrain

Lift up your eyes, and see who made the stars. I lead you, and I know you, I call you each by name. Refrain

Fear not, I am with you; I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; uphold you with my hand. Refrain

Sending: We Are Called
David Haas, 1988, GIA Publications

Come! live in the light! Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord! We are called to be light for the kingdom, to live in the freedom of the city of God!

Refrain: We are called to act with justice. We are called to love tenderly. We are called to serve one another, to walk humbly with God.

Come! Open your heart! Show your mercy to all those in fear! We are called to be hope for the hopeless, so all hatred and blindness will be no more! Refrain

Sing! Sing a new song! Sing of that great day when all will be one! God will reign and we'll walk with each other as sisters and brothers united in love! Refrain
