Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Right now over 40 % of dioceses in the United States are considered mission territories because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. ## Outside the Ordinary.

October 4, which is normally the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, falls this year on a Sunday. The 27th Sunday of Ordinary Time. In the tradition of St. Francis of Assisi and his love for animals, this is the day of the Blessing of the Pets. Therefore, next Sunday, October 4, we will be having the 10:30am Mass outside for parishioners and their families and their fur families! Mass will be celebrated just outside the main entrance to the church, with the altar centered on the concrete pad. All are encouraged to bring a chair and their pets for the Blessing of the Pets immediately following Mass. Those attending are asked to park in the parking lot, remain close to their cars and remember that this is a Mass, so please be reverent and conduct yourselves accordingly. Communion will be distributed up close to the church.

Celebrating Mass outside offers the opportunity to alleviate many concerns some are having regarding attending Mass in person. Please pray for glorious weather.

We will have the BLESSING OF THE PETS

immediately following the Sunday, October 4, 10:30am Mass. If you would like, you can bring your pets to the 10:30am outdoor Mass. Please make sure they are under your control at all times during Mass and after, either by leash or in a carrier.

THE SECULAR FRANCISCANS of St. William invite you to join us in praying the Rosary for our nation on Saturday, October 10, at 11:30am. We will gather near the rectory at the north entrance to St. William. The rosary will be said by 23,000 groups nationwide to commemorate the miracle of Fatima in October 1917. Our nation is in great need of public prayer, repentance and conversion. We will ask God to save America through the Rosary of His Most Holy Mother. Please call Larry Lynch at 638-0148, if you have questions.

Greetings from Great Britain - Former parishioner, Remy Hildenborough, has a new address in Great Britain for those who wish to keep in contact with him. It seems he has found a lovely place near the seaside town of Brighton and is adjusting well to retirement.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 27, 2020

As Christian stewards we are called to a high and holy standard — living as Christ's disciples every day and with every person the Lord places in our path. But we can move towards this goal in "baby steps."

Jesus demonstrates this comforting truth through the parable He tells in today's Gospel from Matthew. It is the story of two sons whose father instructs them to go out and work in his vineyard that day. While the second son agrees to his father's request, he does not follow through — he fails to obey the father's will. The first son tells his father, "no." At least he is honest! And in the end, he reconsiders and obeys his father.

The first son's honest, less-than-perfect response, is consoling to us Christian stewards. Haven't we all felt this way at times when God's will for us seems to be just too hard?

We can be honest with God at these times. He knows our thoughts already, after all. But when we stayed engaged in a real relationship with Him, even if it's just to say, "I don't think I can, Lord," He will supply us with just the grace we need to change our minds and do what He is asking us to do.

We can even take a step backward from time to time because our Father is merciful and kind. What matters is that we keep baby stepping along, assured of the grace we need to more closely imitate the actions and attitudes of Christ. This is the beauty of the stewardship way of life.

The Catholic Steward & Catholic Stewardship Consultants

Our Dear St. William Parish Family,

We thank you so much for your generosity. Even in the face of all you are struggling with, you are amazing! We ask that you continue to support our parish church through the online giving icon on our website, via mail, or if you are comfortable returning to Mass we also now have donation boxes in the church and at the office for your convenience.

MARY JANE MARSH will be "Professed" into the Secular Franciscan Order at the 8:15am Daily Mass at St. William Catholic Church on October 8. She will be making a permanent commitment to the Gospel life and to the Franciscan Rule of the Order. Parishioners are welcome to attend the Mass to experience this beautiful event.

MINISTRY SCHEDULES - If you are ready to return to your chosen ministry, please let the office know. We are in great need of Commentator/Lectors for all Masses, but especially the Saturday, 5:30 Vigil Mass and Sunday, 8am Mass. We are also in need of ushers for 5:30pm and Sunday 10:30am Masses.

We have been working diligently and have greatly improved the sound system for those who live stream Masses. Please check to make sure that you have the volume up on both the YouTube video and on your computer to get optimal sound. StWilliamonSSI

Sympathy & prayers ...

To the family and friends of MARY MANNING BECKER, a long time parishioner of St. William, who recently passed away at the age of 102.

May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

October: Respect Life Month

Each October, the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, with October 4, 2020 designated as Respect Life Sunday.

As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from conception through natural death. Let us spend the month of October reflecting more deeply on the dignity of every human life.

St Vincent de Paul is open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 10-4

The St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry has the following specific needs if you are able to assist: canned fruits (Peaches, Pears, Fruit Cocktail, Mixed Fruit, Pineapple, Mandarin Oranges, etc.) All the above in water or light syrup, if possible. Cut Green Beans and Whole Kernel Corn in cans, Vienna sausage and Luncheon meats (Spam, Treat, Deviled Ham) in pull-top cans, Solid White or Chunk Light Tuna in cans or pouches, Pasta & Meat in microwavable bowls, and Pasta & Meat items in cans.

Please think in terms of regular-size items rather than large or super-size. Pop-top cans and microwavable items meet the needs of those we serve who do not have kitchen facilities. BO-GO's are a great way to buy one for your family and one for our pantry. Basic personal hygiene items for men and women are always needed.

DID YOU KNOW... The St William church bulletin cover is provided by the J.S. Paluch Company to us at no cost. The bulletin is solely funded by the support of the local business community through sponsorships. In order to continue to receive this, and many of the other benefits J.S.Paluch provides our church, we are looking for additional sponsorships to fill up the open space on our advertising page.

If you own a business, know of someone who does, or just want to celebrate an anniversary, birthday or special occasion, please consider promoting the business or event in our church bulletin. For more information on the sponsorship program, please contact our J.S.Paluch representative Patrick Falco directly. He can be reached by email at falcop@jspaluch.com, or directly by phone at 910-200-8383. Also, if you have any experience in sales and would like to help the church fill the sponsorship page, please contact Mr. Falco as well.

St. William thanks you for your consideration and support.

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, hear our prayer and let our cry come unto you. Bless our Diocese of Savannah with many vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life. Give the men and women you call the light to understand your gift and the love to follow always in the footsteps of your priestly son. Amen

Gathering: As Christ is for Us
Janet Sullivan Whitaker @2011. OCP

In the bread we share with the hungry, in the help we give to the poor, In the kindness we show to the stranger we find Christ the open door.

Refrain:

So we rise with him each morning, and we work, as work we must, To be Christ for others as Christ is for us, To be Christ for others as Christ is for us.

May the bread we share give us courage to restore the earth in this time. For the sake of our children's descendants let us honor God's ancient design. Refrain

May the bread we share keep us mindful and the fruit of the vine make us one. Let the whole human family together heed the cry of our island home. Refrain

Reading 1 EZ 18:25-28

Thus says the LORD: You say, "The LORD's way is not fair!" Hear now, house of Israel: Is it my way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair? When someone virtuous turns away from virtue to commit iniquity, and dies, it is because of the iniquity he committed that he must die. But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, he does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life; since he has turned away from all the sins that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm PS 25:4-5, 8-9, 10, 14.

R. (6a) Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me; teach me your paths, guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior.

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD, and your love are from of old. The sins of my youth and my frailties remember not; in your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O LORD.

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Good and upright is the LORD; thus he shows sinners the way. He guides the humble to justice, and teaches the humble his way.

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Reading 2 PHIL 2:1-11 OR 2:1-5

Brothers and sisters: If there is any encouragement in Christ, any solace in love, any participation in the Spirit, any compassion and mercy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing. Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others.

Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus, [Who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.]

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia

IN 10:27

My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me. R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

MT 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not,' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir, but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?' They answered, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him." The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sending: Christ Before Us

Janet Sullivan Whitaker @1990 OCP

Christ before us, Christ beside us, Christ to guide us all our days. He to carry all our sorrows, he to bear us perfect grace. Jesus, Savior, Friend and Brother, Intercessor, Son of God, Save your people in your dying, and in rising, conquer death.

May we be for one another all that you would have us be. May we live your law of kindness, love, compassion, charity. May we climb your hold mountain; may we see your holy face! Visit now this humble dwelling; dwell within this holy place.

God before us through the ages; Christ beside us here today. Spirit, lead us forth forever; guide and help us all our days. Christ the Savior, God the Living, Great Creator, Spirit blest! Holy Three in One Immortal, come and be our welcome guest.

O Redeemer, fill your servants with your words of lasting life. Give to those with hands of healing love transcending pain and strife. Make us loving sons and daughters; make us holy, kind and true, Sent to labor for your Kingdom - restless till we rest in you.
