Jesus' call to "Follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

This week we begin the 2021 Annual Catholic Appeal. This year's theme is "STEADFAST IN FAITH". Your sacrificial gift and prayers will help make this year's appeal a success. Our parish target is $58,369. With your help, we can assure the continued support of many important programs that help thousands in our diocese each year; education of our children and seminary students, evangelization and Christian initiation, ongoing formation for our clergy, and more. We are blessed with much, let us be a blessing to others.

The BLESSING OF THE THROATS will be offered at all Sunday Masses on the weekend of Jan 30-31, 2021, and on the feastday of St. Blaise, Feb 3, 2021. The Congregation for Divine Worship and the Sacraments has directed universally that due to the risk posed this year by the COVID 19 virus, blessings of throats will be done generally at the end of Mass, but no individual blessings will be administered due to the close contact that would be required. Therefore, at the end of all weekend Masses, on January 30/31, and at the end of the feastday Mass on Feb 3, a general proclamation of the proper prayer and blessing will be extended to the entire congregation.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - JANUARY 24

Our readings today focus on the vital attributes of being a disciple of Christ.

The Gospel of John portrays these attributes as he bears witness to Jesus' first disciples. Upon seeing Jesus, John proclaims, "Behold, the Lamb of God." The lamb is a reference to the Jewish sacrificial offering at Passover and reveals Jesus as Savior. Once the two that were with John heard this, they immediately followed Jesus. Jesus turned to them and asked, "What are you looking for?" They responded with, "Rabbi, where are you staying?"

Imagine Jesus asking you, "What are you looking for?" We might respond with answers like a better job, more kids, retirement, or any number of things that we think will make our lives better. The things we seek may be righteous, but as disciples of Christ, we should first and foremost seek the Kingdom of God. If we strive to respond to Jesus' question in the same way the first disciples responded, essentially by asking, "Where are you, Lord?" then we will not be disappointed with the outcome.

Our story of Jesus' first disciples concludes with Andrew intentionally sharing the Good News of Christ to his brother Simon Peter. Andrew had the gift of meeting the Lord and did not hoard it to himself. Instead, he sought his brother and proclaimed what he had experienced, which serves as a reminder for us. Our calling is to be missionary disciples — to seek the Lord and share what we have found. Our faith is a gift! We should strive to share this gift with others.

Donation Envelopes

The office has received several calls from parishioners who have not yet received their donation envelopes for January and February. We have been in contact with the company that provides the envelopes and have been assured that the packets have been mailed. With the holiday season, many packages and letters have been getting delivered late. Please be patient, they will arrive soon. In the meantime, we have a very limited supply of extra envelopes in the office, or you can simply put them in a blank envelope and drop them in the collection basket, donation box or bring to the office.

Abuse Hotline Number: To report sexual abuse of a minor by a Diocese of Savannah employee or volunteer, call the abuse hotline number at 888-357-5330 or the Office for the Protection of Children and Young People, 912-201-4074. To read the diocesan policy on sexual abuse of minors, go to www.diosav.org/childyouthprotection.

DONATION BOXES are by the side doors of the church on weekends and in the church and office during the week for your convenience. We thank you for your continued support of our parish church through use of donation boxes, the online giving icon on our website and via mail.

VIRTUS TRAINING - ZOOM REMOTE - Virtus classes are now being done via ZOOM meetings. Space is limited in these classes and pre-registration is required. Go to Virtusonline.org to pre-register for upcoming classes

CELEBRATE CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK 2021

January 31 -
February 6
#CSW21

Dear Friends,

If you are a parent considering a Catholic education for your child or you already have children at St. Francis Xavier, you will be interested to know that today is the beginning of National Catholic Schools Week. The theme for this annual observance is "Catholic Schools – Faith. Excellence. Service." St. Francis Xavier Catholic School is indeed a community of Faith, Excellence, and Service. In fact, our Mission Statement reflects those three realities: "Inspired by the Sisters of St. Joseph, St. Francis Xavier Catholic School provides an excellent academic foundation, promotes spiritual formation, and instills within each student a desire to serve others."

At St. Francis Xavier, the Catholic faith is taught in religion classes each day, but more importantly, it is practiced throughout the day. Our teachers serve as role models in their personal and professional behaviors and interactions with students and peers. Our classes begin with prayer, and each member of our school community is encouraged to develop a personal relationship with God. Our students and faculty attend School Mass every Friday, and a variety of sacramental experiences are provided throughout the year to nurture and promote faith formation.

High academic standards are practiced and maintained by the administration and faculty of St. Francis Xavier. Daily, the teachers offer their gifts of knowledge and love, skillfully bringing out the potential of each child. Our students consistently score above average on norm-referenced tests as compared to the other twelve Catholic Schools in the Diocese and in the nation. Because of our high standards and rigorous instruction, our students learn not only the standard educational subjects, but Spanish, art, music, and study skills as well. Our students leave St. Francis with the knowledge and skills needed to be life-long learners.

Our school offers many opportunities for students and families to put their faith into action through service projects such as Canned Food Drives for the St. Vincent de Paul Society, monetary collections for those in need, Christmas Toy Drives for the Salvation Army, and other similar giving endeavors. The many staff, parents, and volunteers in our school fill in wherever they are needed, giving of their time and talents to serve God by serving our young people. Also, financial gifts from generous St. Francis Xavier School benefactors make a Catholic education possible for families who otherwise could not afford it.

Not only are we teaching students to become future servant leaders, faith-filled disciples, and enriched citizens in our community, but we, as educators, are also growing with them. These shared qualities make Catholic schools work. They make Catholic schools succeed.

Faith development, academic excellence, and dedication to service set Catholic schools apart from other educational options. They are the reasons families make sacrifices to provide their children with a Catholic education.

I am grateful every day for the teachers, staff, board members, parents, and volunteers who make our school a success. National Catholic Schools Week is a perfect time to thank them for their dedication and service!

A special thank you to all parishioners who share their time, talent and treasure to support St. Francis Xavier Catholic School.

If you are already a part of St. Francis Xavier Catholic School, thank you for your trust and involvement. If you are interested in learning more about our school and all it offers, please contact the school office to schedule an individual tour of our school.

God bless you,

Deacon Terry Mermann, Ed.D., Principal

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, hear our prayer and let our cry come unto you. Bless our Diocese of Savannah with many vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life. Give the men and women you call the light to understand your gift and the love to follow always in the footsteps of your priestly son. Amen

Gathering:

Sing a New Song

Dan Schutte @ 1972, 2008. OCP

Refrain: Sing a new song unto the Lord; let your song be sung from mountains high. Sing a new song unto the Lord, singing alleluia.

Shout with gladness! Dance for joy! O come before the Lord. And play for God on glad tambourines and let your trumpet sound. Refrain

Rise, O children, from your sleep; Your Savior how has come. He has turned your sorrow to joy and filled your soul with song. Refrain

Glad my soul for I have seen the glory of the Lord. The trumpet sounds; the dead shall be raised. I know my Savior lives. Refrain

Reading 1

Jon 3:1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding. Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed," when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Common Psalm 19, 27, 34, 63, 85, 100, 103 or 145 may be used in place of this psalm. Psalm 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP (RSA p. 34)

R. (4a) Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me; teach me your paths, Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD, and your love are from of old. In your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O LORD.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Good and upright is the LORD; thus he shows sinners the way. He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble his way.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Reading 2

1 Cor 7:29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out. From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully. For the world in its present form is passing away.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia

Mk 1:15

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the Gospel.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mk 1:14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them.

So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Presentation: The Summons

Kelvingrove ©1987 Iona Community

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let me love be shown, will you let my name be known,
Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer pray'r in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call you name?
Will you set the pris'ners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around,
through my sight, and touch, and sound in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

Communion: Lord, You Have Come

Cesáreo Gabaráin © 1979, 1987, Cesáreo Gabaráin.
Published by OCP

Verse 1

1. Lord, you have come to the seashore, neither searching for the rich nor the wise,
desiring only that I should follow.

Refrain

O, Lord, with your eyes set upon me, gently smiling, you have spoken my name;
all I longed for I have found by the water,
at your side, I will seek other shores.

Verses 2-4

2. Lord, see my goods, my possessions;
in my boat you find no power, no wealth.
Will you accept, then, my nets and labor?

3. Lord, take my hands and direct them.
Help me spend myself in seeking the lost,
returning love for the love you gave me.

4. Lord, as I drift on the waters,
be the resting place of my restless heart,
my life's companion, my friend and refuge.

Sending: Companions on the Journey

Carey Landry © 1985, Carey Landry and OCP

Refrain

We are companions on the journey, breaking bread and sharing life;
and in the love we bear is the hope we share
for we believe in the love of our God,
we believe in the love of our God.

1. No longer strangers to each other;
no longer strangers in God's house;
we are fed and we are nourished
by the strength of those who care,
by the strength of those who care.

2. We have been gifted with each other,
and we are called by the Word of the Lord:
to act with justice, to love tenderly,
and to walk humbly with our God,
to walk humbly with our God.

3. We will seek and we shall find;
we will knock and the door will be opened;
we will ask and it shall be given,
for we believe in the love of our God,
we believe in the love of our God.
