We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS, NOVEMBER 1, IS A HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION IN 2022.

Monday, October 31, Vigil Mass at 6pm
Tuesday, November 1, Masses at 8am and 6pm.

On ALL SAINTS DAY, we remember all men and women - known and unknown - who lived a blessed life and were servants of the Lord while here on earth. We ask that they pray for us so that one day we might join them in heaven.

On ALL SOULS DAY, November 2, the Church remembers and prays for the faithful departed: our brothers and sisters who have died marked with the sign of faith. Particularly, we pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory from November 1 to the 8th. Mass will be held at 8:15am.

Our parish will take up the COLLECTION FOR THE ARCHDIOCESE FOR THE MILITARY SERVICES, USA (AMS) on November 12 and 13. This is a collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops to be taken every three years. The AMS provides pastoral care to Catholic men and women serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, enrolled at a U.S. Military Academy, being treated as a patient at any of the 153 U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, or who work for the federal government beyond U.S. borders - including those from our own parish and diocese. The AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military, and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. To learn more about the AMS, go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection.

VA MEDALLIONS - We have had some interest expressed in having a commemoration of military service on columbarium niches. After consulting with Eickhof Columbaria, the creator/manufacturer/inscriber of our columbarium and niches, we have determined that the VA has an appropriate sized medallion (2" x 1.5" x 1/3") for our niches. The VA offers these medallions free of charge to eligible deceased Veterans. More information is available here, or at <https://www.va.gov/find-forms/about-form-40-1330m/>. Forms are also available in the church office.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

31st SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - OCTOBER 30

It is easy to view each other with suspicion or at least a certain guardedness in the modern world. Of course, it's wise to be prudent in our dealings with people. But stewardship calls us to a different outlook towards others. It calls us to approach everyone with an open heart — not through a lens of suspicion, but through the lens of loving hospitality.

This is the attitude of our heavenly Father when He looks upon creation, as we see in our first reading from the Book of Wisdom: "For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made; for you would not fashion what you hate." God's imperishable spirit is in every person because every person is made in God's own image and likeness.

Far deeper than good manners or a superficial exchange of pleasantries, the virtue of hospitality is the outward expression of this way of seeing people as God sees them.

Our Gospel reading from Luke tells the story of how Jesus models this transforming hospitality in His encounter with the tax collector, Zacchaeus. He was not content exchanging a friendly hello with Zacchaeus, so Jesus sought him out of the crowd and insisted on having dinner in his home. This gesture of intimacy and true fellowship was commonplace in that day and culture. Jesus saw the goodness within the man. Our Lord's open and welcoming attitude (His hospitality) called forth this goodness, and as a result, Zacchaeus transformed.

If we are willing to practice Christian hospitality in our daily lives, our families, workplaces, and parish also can be transformed.
