STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - OCTOBER 1

"Son, go out and work in the vineyard today."

MATTHEW 21:28

As Christian stewards we are called to a high and holy standard — living as Christ's disciples every day and with every person the Lord places in our path. But we can move towards this goal in "baby steps."

Jesus demonstrates this comforting truth through the parable He tells in today's Gospel from Matthew. It is the story of two sons whose father instructs them to go out and work in his vineyard that day. While the second son agrees to his father's request, he does not follow through — he fails to obey the father's will. The first son tells his father, "no." At least he is honest! And in the end, he reconsiders and obeys his father.

The first son's honest, less-than-perfect response, is consoling to us Christian stewards. Haven't we all felt this way at times when God's will for us seems to be just too hard?

We can be honest with God at these times. He knows our thoughts already, after all. But when we stayed engaged in a real relationship with Him, even if it's just to say, "I don't think I can, Lord," He will supply us with just the grace we need to change our minds and do what He is asking us to do.

We can even take a step backward from time to time because our Father is merciful and kind. What matters is that we keep baby stepping along, assured of the grace we need to more closely imitate the actions and attitudes of Christ. This is the beauty of the stewardship way of life.

The first Sunday of October is additionally observed as Respect Life Sunday. This year the USCCB has chosen "Radical Solidarity" as the theme. It is a term coined by St. John Paul II in reference to the need for Christians to support mothers in difficult pregnancies.

You can find out more about this theme here (www.usccb.org, type "Radical Solidarity in the search field.")

PRAY. GROW. AND SERVE

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. (Matthew 11:25)

telling the truth with our bodies

Written in collaboration with PeelandtheFaith.com

God made us to be helpers for one another out of love!

PRAY: Humans are unique to all of creation because we are the only creature that God formed with both a body and soul.

God chose to create us in His image and likeness, both our body and our soul are an important part of WHO we are.

God sent His Son, Jesus, so we could encounter Him in a new way—as Man. Jesus reveals the fullness of what it means to be human. Jesus teaches us how to use our bodies to express the truth of who God made us to be.

God made us to be helpers for one another out of love. When we read the Gospel we learn how to be loving, bodily helpers to those around us.

Spend time in prayer thanking Jesus for your body. Every part of you from your head to your toes is a beautiful gift from God. Thanks God for the ability to physically do the things you can do!

We have a responsibility to use our body to speak the language of love in truth!

We have a responsibility to use our bodies to speak the language of love in truth! This means that each action we take with our body must unashamedly will the absolute good of the person we are serving.

Jesus teaches us that whenever we perform bodily works of mercy we are serving HIM! (Matthew 25:35-40) When we choose not to speak a language of love with our bodies we deceive ourselves and those around us about the dignity of the human body and who God created us to be.

Deceiving another is called lying. Just as it is a sin to tell a lie with our words, it is also a sin to tell a lie with our body.

cor.po.ral [adjective]

GROW: The word "corporeal" means pertaining to the body. Given to us by Jesus, the corporeal works of mercy are ways in which God asks us to express the truth of who He is (Love) and the truth of who we were created to be (sharers in His Love).

These 7 acts of mercy are done through our bodies and specifically care for the dignity of the human body.

the corporal works of mercy:

- Feed the hungry.
- Give water to the thirsty.
- Provide clothing for those without clothes.
- Shelter the homeless.
- Visit the sick.
- Visit the imprisoned.
- Bury the dead.

SERVE: You can speak the truth of God's love by performing the corporal works of mercy in your home!

When you help to bring in the groceries, make dinner, take care of a job-sitting, or help with the laundry you are speaking the truth of God's love and who He created you to be!

"Our actions have a tongue of their own; even when the tongue is silent. For deeds prove the lover more than words."
