Within a parish community, do ministries collaborate with each other or do they compete against each other? Do parish ministries work for the greater glory of God or do they work for the glory of the people running them. The primary goal of parish ministry is not to increase Mass attendance, increase the number of volunteers or increase offertory.
The primary goal is to be one Body of Christ that helps people take one step closer to Jesus. If it's not doing that, it's not worth doing.

Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.

LOST, FOUND & MISSING - We have a large white crockpot that has been in the kitchen since the Lenten Lunches. If it is yours, please come by the office to pick it up. If not claimed by June 30, it will be donated to St. Vincent.

REVEREND JAY HARRINGTON, OP - For the past few summers, Rev. Jay Harrington, OP, a native of Waterloo, Iowa and a Dominican friar, has come to fill in while Monsignor Schreck took some time off. This year, Fr. Jay has come to help out while Monsignor Schreck continues on medical leave and will be here at St. William until September 3. We are so excited to have him here again. He is a published author, and was Professor of New Testament at Aquinas Institute of Theology in St. Louis, Missouri. He has taught in various seminaries and universities, served in several parishes (both here and abroad), campus ministries, as a civilian contract chaplain at bases in Holland and Germany, and in hospitals. For many years he has assisted at Easter in the Diocese of Fairbanks, Alaska and prior to that served for 5 years in the Anchorage Archdiocese. He has previously served as a chaplain on pilgrimages to the Shrines of Spain, on El Camino, and to Fatima and Lourdes.

FR. CORNELIUS ANENE has been with us here at St. William as our Parochial Vicar since mid April. We are so delighted to have him, and hope he is enjoying his time here with us. He will be leaving us and heading to St. Joseph in Augusta, Georgia, on July 1, but in the meantime he will continue. In addition to his pastoral duties over the next few weeks, on Thursday, June 13, 7:30pm to 8:30pm, Fr Cornelius will be speaking to group of 42 high school students who are participating in Rotary International's Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA). In keeping with this year's theme "Create Hope in the World," Fr. Cornelius will speak about HIS experiences growing up and living in Nigeria and Chad, and elsewhere. He will speak of his personal journey and how we can each find ways to create HOPE - in our communities and around the world - no matter where we live. (Stemler Auditorium in the Campus Center at College of Coastal Georgia.)
We will be having a reception on Sunday, June 30, after the 10:30am Mass to thank Fr. Cornelius for being here at St. William with us.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - JUNE 9, 2024

In today's First Reading from the Book of Genesis we hear the story of Adam and Eve and their sins, defying God. However, when God was present in the garden, the man and woman hid themselves. Adam responds to God's question why in part by saying "I was afraid... so I hid myself." Did he, do any of us really think he could hide from God?

As children many of us may have hidden from a parent when we did something wrong, and it was in violation of some specific order we had received. Our efforts to hide what we did and to hide ourselves were probably no more effective than Adam's.

As humans we know the temptation of following our own plans, even if they are contrary to God's. We think we know better, and we may try to still have it our way. If what we have done is particularly shameful, we may try to hide our sins from God.

The sincere truth is that we cannot hide from God any more than Adam and Eve could. Psalm 139 declares, "Where can I hide from your spirit (God's)? From your presence where can I flee? If I ascend to the heavens, you are there; if I lie down in Sheol (the place of the dead) you are there, too. If I say, 'Surely darkness will hide me'... Darkness is not dark for you."

What are we hiding from? In recent weeks we have learned over and over how much God loves us. It is time for us to accept that and not hide.
